

San Luis Obispo County Superior Court Family Law Department

To Whom it May Concern:

The San Luis Obispo Family Law Department would like to announce a number of changes that will be taking place as indicated herein.

1. Compensation of Court-Appointed Minor's Counsel - San Luis Obispo County Superior Court

Effective July 1, 2023 and going forward, Minor's Counsel will be compensated for the following services at the following rates:

- Minor's Counsel: billed in 1/10th hour increments: $110.00
- Minor's Counsel Office Staff: billed in 1/10th hour increments: $50.00
- Discretionary hard costs. These costs must be requested and authorized in advance by the supervising Family Law judge. Parking, most photocopying and fax fees will generally not be compensated. Please note, there are no court filing fees for Minor's Counsel.
- Travel time: Travel time will not be compensated.
- 90-Day Submission Requirements: Minor's Counsel bills must be submitted no later than 90 days after the date of service. Bills submitted after 90 days of the date of service will not be considered.

Private-pay Minor's Counsel will be compensated for their time, and their staff's time at their private-pay rates unless otherwise agreed to at the time of appointment.

2. Change of Clerks – Commencing July 24, 2023, Dani Klein and Amy Santana will be assigned to Department 7 with Judge Childs and Anna Zanellato and Victoria Miller will be assigned to Department 11 with Commissioner McDaniel. In order to avoid any missed emails due to clerk mobility, starting on July 24th, please email to these new courtroom-specific email addresses:

- Department 7: department7@slo.courts.ca.gov
- Department 11: department11@slo.courts.ca.gov

Whoever is clerking in that courtroom that day will have the ability to monitor, send and receive emails from that email address so no emails pertinent to that courtroom will be missed.

3. New Family Law Division Initial Standing Order – Commencing August 1, 2023, the attached Initial Standing Order will be issued for all new Family Law cases. Petitioners will be required to serve this document with their initial paperwork. Further instructions will be disseminated as August 1st approaches.

4. RFO Calendars in Departments 7 and 11 – Commencing November 13, 2023 and November 20, 2023 respectively, Departments 7 and 11's RFO calendars will be held on Mondays in-person. Zoom RFO sessions will no longer be utilized except in limited circumstances and only after prior written request. Department 11's RFO calendar will be in-person starting at 9:00 am and Department 7's will start at 1:30 pm.

Parties and attorneys may ask for Zoom court appearances for good cause on a case-by-case basis. Zoom court appearances will generally not be granted solely because an attorney is double set in another courtroom, in trial in another county close in time to the RFO calendar, or because they are from out of town. The Court is working on a new procedure to be able to make these requests electronically.

As discussed at the first Family Law bench/bar meeting, the Monday calendar was chosen to accommodate attorneys who regularly appear in Santa Maria on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. The November commencement date was chosen in order to give attorneys and professionals enough advanced notice to be able to adjust their practices to this change.

If you and opposing counsel/party wish to continue your matter out to a different day in line with the Initial Standing Order, or agree to put yourselves on second call, you may jointly email the courtroom indicating that agreement and find a new date. Reasonable requests that are not contrary to the new standing Family Law Rule will be granted at the Court's discretion.

The Court will continue to utilize Zoom for high-volume, quick calendars, some trials where all parties and the Court agree as well as settlement conferences. We are considering calendaring our Zoom sessions in such a way that it funnels the quick appearances into the same date and time to enable you to make multiple appearances in multiple courtrooms from your office. We welcome suggestions from you. Please submit suggestions through the Family Law Co-chairs, Valerie Hosford and Robbie Rizzo. We will address any questions at the next Quarterly Family Law Bench/Bar/Public meeting.

5. August Family Law Bench/Bar/Public Quarterly Meeting: Please mark your calendars for our next Quarterly Bench/Bar/Public meeting for August 18, 2023 at 12:15 in the Jury Services Room at the San Luis Obispo County Superior Courthouse. As always, please direct questions, and feedback to Family Law Co-chairs, Valerie Hosford and Robbie Rizzo by email and we will do our best to address them during the meeting.

In Your Service,

Hon. Erin Childs

8 SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
9 COUNTY OF SAN LUIS OBISPO

10 -000-

11 SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT FAMILY LAW DIVISION
12 INITIAL STANDING ORDER

13 This case has been assigned to the Family Law calendar. Whenever a new or existing case
14 is assigned, the Court issues this Initial Standing Order (“ISO”). This Order sets out the Judge’s 15 rules and expectations that all parties must follow. In addition to this ISO, parties are required to 16 follow the California Code of Civil Procedure, California Rules of Court, and the Local Rules of 17 San Luis Obispo Superior Court (“SLOSC”).

18 The Court hereby ORDERS as follows:

19 I. CIVILITY AND PROFESSIONALISM

20 Parties must be civil, respectful, and professional at all times. The Court expects the 21 parties to be familiar with and follow the California Guidelines of Civility and Professionalism,
22 *available at: [http://www.calbar.ca.gov/Attorneys/Conduct-Discipline/Ethics/Attorney-Civility-
24 and-Professionalism](http://www.calbar.ca.gov/Attorneys/Conduct-Discipline/Ethics/Attorney-Civility-23 and-Professionalism)*, as well as the San Luis Obispo Bar Association’s Civility Guidelines.
25 Uncivil or unprofessional behavior will not be tolerated and may be met with sanctions. The 26 Court expects parties to resolve all disputes regarding scheduling or time extensions without the 27 necessity of Court involvement.

1 II. CONTINUANCES AND EXTENSIONS OF DEADLINES

2 Due to the impacted court calendars, the Court has a strong interest in adhering to 3 scheduled dates. Changes in dates are generally disfavored absent a showing of good cause.
4 Accordingly, the Court will address continuances pursuant to these guidelines:

- 5 • Request for Order (“RFO”) and Trial Setting Conference (“TSC”):

6 Only one (1) continuance will be freely granted. Continuances by email may be requested
7 at any time prior to, but no later than, the day before the hearing at 3:00 PM. Email continuances
8 will be granted only if both parties agree to the continuance, as confirmed either by (1) a conjoint
9 email to the court's clerk with confirmed receipt; (2) or a signed stipulation. After one (1) 10 continuance, appearances by both sides will be required to request any further continuance and 11 will require a showing of good cause.

- 12 • Trial, Settlement Conference (“SC”), Trial Readiness Conference (“TRC”) and Specially 13 Set Matters:

14 Trial, SC, TRC and Specially Set Matter dates set by the Court are firm and will rarely be 15 changed. Any request, whether by stipulation or motion, to continue these matters must be filed
16 with the clerk's office and must be supported by a sufficiently detailed explanation of the grounds
17 for the requested continuance or extension of time. The Court will only continue these matters
18 upon a showing of good cause. If the parties are not prepared to go forward, then the Court
19 reserves the option to vacate all pending dates.

20 III. MEET AND CONFER PRIOR TO RFO HEARING

21 Pursuant to California Rules of Court rule 5.98, all parties and all attorneys are required
22 to meet and confer to resolve as many issues as possible prior to an RFO hearing except for cases
23 involving domestic violence. This meeting shall be conducted in person, telephonically or through 24 a videoconferencing platform. This meet and confer shall include discussing financial issues as 25 referenced below, which shall encompass agreeing and/or narrowing areas of disagreement as to 26 the various inputs relevant to any required calculations/submittals.

27 CRC 5.98 likewise requires the parties to exchange all documentary evidence (other than 28 rebuttal or impeachment documents) that will be relied upon to prove a material fact. This is a

1 requirement of the CRC and this Court. The Court may decline to consider documents that were 2 not exchanged before the hearing. This requirement does not apply to cases involving domestic 3 violence in which an active restraining order exists, and the protected party is self-
4 represented. Under no circumstances may a restrained party communicate directly with a
5 protected party under the guise of complying with any meet and confer requirement.

6 IV. MEDIATION

7 If child custody or visitation is at issue and the parties have not attended mediation with 8 Family Court Services within the past 120 days, the parties are ordered to attend mediation prior 9 to their hearing date. The Court may impose a monetary sanction on the parties for failure to 10 appear at mediation or for failure to cancel the appointment upon reaching an agreement.

11 V. FINANCIAL ISSUES

12 In any trial or hearing where financial matters are at issue (e.g., child support, spousal 13 support, attorney’s fees, payment of debts, or calculation/payment of arrearages), both parties
14 must comply with San Luis Obispo County Family Law Department Family Law Policies and 15 Procedure section 2:8.2. Accordingly, the parties must file and serve current and complete 16 Income and Expense Declarations (FL-150). “Current” is defined as being completed within the 17 last three (3) months before the date of the RFO, long-cause hearing or trial. See CRC 5.260(a)(3)
18 (support) and 5.427(d) (attorney’s fees). Failure to comply with this requirement may result in 19 the Court drawing an adverse inference against the non-complying party.

20 In addition, if child support or temporary spousal support is at issue, both parties shall 21 provide the Court with competing (or joint where the parties agree) Dissomaster calculations 22 (based upon the most recent financial information) supporting their respective positions on the 23 amount of support sought. In those instances where support is not at issue, but attorney’s fees (or 24 other similar relief) are sought, which in turn requires a consideration of a party’s financial 25 capacity or needs, the parties shall nonetheless provide Dissomaster calculations to demonstrate 26 the parties’ respective disposable net incomes after accounting for support obligations and/or tax
27 consequences. Where retroactivity is sought, and income amounts vary during the retroactivity
28 period in question, separate Dissomaster calculations shall be provided for each such timeframe

1 with appropriate labels and identification to assist the Court and the parties. Parties shall be
2 prepared to email the working file (i.e., not a pdf version) of each Dissomaster calculation to the 3 judicial officer's clerk upon request.

4 VI. FINDINGS AND ORDER AFTER HEARING (the "FOAH")

5 Unless the Court orders otherwise or the parties stipulate to the contrary, the moving party
6 (i.e., the party who filed the RFO) shall prepare the findings and order after hearing. The parties
7 shall comply with CRC 5.125 in preparing and submitting the proposed order (and any objections
8 or alternate proposed order).

9 VII. GETTING TO A LONG-CAUSE HEARING OR TRIAL

10 Parties may calendar a long-cause hearing or trial at their request in court at an RFO
11 hearing, DVPA hearing or by filing an "At Issue Memorandum for Trial Setting". If property 12 issues are to be litigated, such as is the case for a dissolution, the parties must have complied with 13 Family Code § 2104 requiring exchange of Preliminary Declarations of Disclosure ("PDDs")
14 prior to filing the "At Issue Memorandum." You will be placed on calendar for a Trial Setting
15 Conference ("TSC") that will set in motion a series of events designed to bring the case, in whole 16 or in part, to a resolution by way of agreement or trial.

17 a. Trial Setting Conference ("TSC"): At the TSC, the Court will assess whether the parties
18 are reasonably ready for trial. If appropriate based on the circumstances of your case, the Court
19 may set a date for a settlement conference with another Family Law judge or commissioner to 20 help try to settle your entire case. The Court will also give you other dates, such as dates to 21 exchange witness lists, exhibits, a Trial Readiness Statement and give you a Trial Readiness
22 Conference court date.

23 b. Meaningful Meet and Confers: In most cases, you will be ordered to have a "meaningful 24 meet and confer" which is where all parties and attorneys meet to try to settle your entire case out
25 of court. A meaningful meet and confer is one where the parties and their attorneys attend, devote 26 their full attention to the meeting, and legitimately discuss which issues may be resolved out of 27 court. Failure to meet this requirement may result in monetary sanctions against the non- 28 cooperating individual(s).

1 d. Trial Readiness Conference (TRC) and Trial Readiness Statement: The last
2 appearance you will have before your long-cause hearing or trial is the TRC. This is where you
3 tell the judge or commissioner that you are or are not ready for trial. You will also be ordered to 4 file a Trial Readiness Statement to be filed before the TRC which shall contain the following
5 applicable information and attachments:

6 1. Issues resolved between the parties with specificity; and 7 2. Identification of each issue left unresolved to be determined and ruled upon at 8 trial/hearing.

9 3. Expert Reports: Please request that your experts meet and confer before trial to 10 compare their reports, spot the differences, and draft a "Side-by-Side" report to be used at trial.
11 A "Side-by-Side" report is one that provides an overview of both reports, and highlighting the 12 differences.

13 4. If property is at issue, the parties are to prepare a jointly executed SCHEDULE OF 14 PROPERTY "FREDMAN FORM" (FL001* – San Luis Obispo), or Propertizer. Please be 15 prepared to email the clerk a working file of your Propertizer for the Court's use barring objection 16 of either party.

17 5. If spousal support is at issue, the parties shall complete the 4320 Factor Form*
18 with the marital standard of living "MSOL" and each of the Family Code section 4320 factors.

19 6. A Current Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150*)

20 7. A Proposed Dissomaster calculation for child support, if at issue.

21 e. Trial: The dates set for trial are firm. Continuances will be granted only upon an 22 affirmative showing of good cause requiring a continuance. See CRC 3.1332. Motions in 23 Limine must be filed and served on the opposing party no later than five (5) court days before the 24 trial date. Oppositions to any Motions in Limine must be filed and served no later than two (2)
25 court days before the trial day. Reply briefs regarding such motions are not permitted. Parties
26 should take special care to only file those Motions in Limine which are appropriate.

27 ///

28 ///

1 Trials set for the same day will be prioritized by issue, age of case, state of readiness, and 2 time commitment. Trials not completed on the date set for trial shall continue day-to-day until 3 completed, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

4 VIII. EXHIBITS

5 For a complete description, see: the San Luis Obispo County Family Law Policies and 6 Procedures Manual, 2:10.1(2)(a)&(b). Whether your hearing or trial is by Zoom or in person, you
7 must always provide the court with a hard copy of all of your exhibits before your trial starts.
8 Attaching them to your declarations or filing them electronically is not sufficient. You must 9 provide hard copies for each separate hearing or trial even if they are duplicates from another,
10 previous hearing.

11 Hearings by Zoom: All exhibits must be exchanged either electronically or in hard copy
12 (depending on what you agreed to at the TSC). Any witness that testifies remotely must be in a
13 quiet location with stable Wi-Fi as well appear on a desktop computer or laptop – not a smart
14 phone or tablet. The witness must also have hard copies of the exhibits with them. Electronic 15 copies are not allowed as they are difficult to manage and use during testimony and delay the 16 proceedings.

17 Hearings in person: Bring a hard copy of all your exhibits, ideally in an exhibit binder, for 18 each attorney, the witness stand, the court and one extra for the clerk.

19 Video, audio, or photographic evidence: The Court cannot insert a USB drive, “thumb”
20 drive, CD-ROM, or any other device into the court computer system, including televisions in the 21 courtroom. Please discuss this with the bench officer at the TSC to discuss how you will present 22 such evidence.

23 Where to leave your exhibits: Please leave the hard copies of your exhibits in the Jury
24 Services room at the San Luis Obispo Courthouse and at the clerk’s window or drop box at the 25 Paso Robles Courthouse no later than the day before your trial/hearing is to start.

26 Stipulations to admissibility of exhibits: Before your hearing or trial, the Court will require 27 the parties to meet to review all exhibits to see if you can stipulate to the admissibility of some or 28 all your exhibits.

1 Return of Exhibits: At the completion of your long-cause hearing or trial and barring 2 objection of the parties or counsel, all exhibits will be returned to the respective owners and 3 ordered held for the appellate period of time.

4 IX. OBJECTIONS AT HEARINGS/TRIALS

5 Speaking objections are not allowed. Proper objections should be made as follows:

- 6 1. State the word “Objection;”
7 2. State the legally recognized basis for the objection; and 8 3. Remain silent and await the Court’s ruling on the objection.

9 The Court’s ruling on an objection is not a request for further comment by counsel. If the 10 Court requires additional input on an objection, then the Court will request additional input.

11 X. OTHER ISSUES

12 a. Communication with the Court: Occasionally, parties and/or attorneys may 13 communicate with the courtroom clerks about non-substantive issues regarding your case or 14 upcoming court hearings. The court is ethically barred from having any "ex parte"
15 communications with any party or their attorney so a judge or commissioner will never speak
16 with a party or attorney about their case without all parties and attorneys present. However, you
17 may wish to speak with the court clerk about a calendaring issue. If you wish to communicate
18 with the court clerk in some way, please make sure you include the other party and their attorney
19 in the email. If you don't, the email will be deleted immediately and not read.

20 b. Notice of this Order: Petitioner’s counsel or Petitioner (if appearing on his or her own 21 behalf) shall immediately serve this Order on all parties, including any new parties to the action.
