COMPLETE FORMS:

An FL-220 or FL-270 Response must be completed and filed within 30 days from the date you were served with a copy of the FL-200 Petition to Establish Parental Relationship or FL-260 Petition for Custody and Support. If you do not file a Response within 30 days, the other side may move the case forward without you. If it has been more than 30 days since you were served, you still may be able to file your Response, so long as the other side has not yet filed the FL-165 Request to Enter Default.

WHERE TO GET HELP:

Self-Help Center: To schedule a telephone appointment for a document review or to register for our Zoom webinar go to <https://calendly.com/self-help-center/> or call (805) 706-3617. Visit the California Courts Self-Help website for more information about FL-220 or FL-270 Response at <https://www.courts.ca.gov/1192.htm> or <https://www.courts.ca.gov/1203.htm>.

WHERE TO GET FORMS:

Internet: For free, click on the hyperlinks in these instructions or go to www.courts.ca.gov, click on "Forms & Rules" and then click on "Find Your Court Forms" and type in the form number or name.

Court Clerk's Office: For $5, you may purchase a packet of blank forms.

COSTS INVOLVED: $435 filing fee for filing the FL-220 or FL-270 Response. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, you may request for a fee waiver by completing the following forms:

FW-001 Request to Waive Court Fees

FW-003 Order on Court Fee Waiver

HELPFUL TIPS:

Petitioner & Respondent - If you are filing the FL-220 or FL-270 Response you will always be the Respondent in this case and the other party will be called the Petitioner.

The forms may be typed or handwritten in blue or black ink.

Legal Custody: Legal custody deals with the parents' right to make the decisions relating to the child's health, education and welfare. One or both parents can have legal custody. If both parents are making decisions about the child it is called joint legal custody.

Physical Custody: Physical custody deals with the days and times that the child will spend with each parent. If the child primarily lives with one parent it is called physical custody. If you are requesting that both parents spend a substantial period of time with the child, it is called Joint Physical Custody.

Visitation: Visitation is the time that the child spends with the parent the child does not primarily live with. The options are (1) Reasonable Visitation (2) Specific Visitation Schedule (3) Supervised Visitation.

Child Support: To determine the amount of guideline child support that the Court may order in your case, visit www.childsupport.ca.gov and click on Calculate Child Support.

Notice of Related Case: If another cases exists that involves the same parties and issues like child custody, support or restraining orders then a CM-015 Notice of Related Case should be filed.

Update Contact Information: Parties must serve and file MC-040 Notice of Change of Address or Other Contact Information to keep each other and the court informed of their contact information.

Request for Status Conference: Parties may serve and file local form FL014 Request for Status Conference or Family Centered Case Resolution Conference to request a conference earlier than or in addition to any conference scheduled by the court.

(SIGNATURE OF RESPONDENT)

NOTICE: If you have a child from this relationship, the court is required to order child support based upon the income of both parents. Support normally continues until the child is 18. You should supply the court with information about your finances. Otherwise, the child support order will be based upon information supplied by the other parent. Any party required to pay child support must pay interest on overdue amounts at the "legal" rate, which is currently 10 percent.

Read this form carefully. All checked boxes are court orders.

Notice: The court may order you to answer questions about your finances and later order you to pay back the waived fees. If this happens and you do not pay, the court can make you pay the fees and also charge you collection fees. If there is a change in your financial circumstances during this case that increases your ability to pay fees and costs, you must notify the trial court within five days. (Use form FW-010.) If you win your case, the trial court may order the other side to pay the fees. If you settle your civil case for $10,000 or more, the trial court will have a lien on the settlement in the amount of the waived fees. The trial court may not dismiss the case until the lien is paid.

4 After reviewing your (check one): Request to Waive Court Fees Request to Waive Additional Court Fees the court makes the following orders:
a. The court grants your request, as follows:
(1) Fee Waiver. The court grants your request and waives your court fees and costs listed below. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.55.) You do not have to pay the court fees for the following:
